

Howard A. Grimm, Jr., MM. 1/c., is a veteran of the naval operations incident to the storming of the shores of North Africa, Sicily and Salerno. He was aboard the U.S.S. Savannah when the ship was hit by a bomb. Now on duty in an undisclosed area he wears three battle stars. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Grimm, 178 Thomas street, and the husband of Mrs. Dorothy Harper Grimm, 620 Montreal avenue. The couple has two children.

Cumberland Sunday Times (Cumberland, Maryland)

Sunday, November 26, 1944, page 9

